

The LAU New York Academic Center and
The New York/New Jersey Alumni Chapter

Invite you to a presentation by Ms. Nada Sara:

LEBANON'S WORLD HERITAGE SITES

Using a visually captivating slide presentation, Nada Sara will address the criteria by which five properties in Lebanon were inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

The sites reflect a rich tradition of cross-cultural interactions that have contributed to shaping the world today. They are recognized for the diffusion of an alphabet, the invention of purple dye, the establishment of colonies and palace-cities, the pilgrimages to religious sanctuaries, and early monastic settlements.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

LAU New York Headquarters & Academic Center
211 East 46th Street (between 2nd and 3rd Avenues)
New York, NY 10017
(Refreshments will be served)

Please RSVP by Monday, September 15 to jasmine.jaime@lau.edu or call (212)203-4333

Nada Sara holds a Masters of Law degree from Fordham University and degrees in Lebanese and French Law from Saint Joseph University. She is actively involved in supporting education for Lebanese children.
