Zaven Kouyoumdjian is a talk show host, producer, media consultant, and lecturer who was named by Newsweek magazine in 2005 as one of 43 most influential people in the Middle East. His bestselling book Lebanon on Screen reconstructs the country's collective memory through pop culture. Zaven is also the author of Lebanon Shot Twice, A Witness on Society, and God Bless Your Evening. After graduating from the Lebanese American University, he launched Sire Wenfatahit, which became the longest running Arab social talk show.
