

The Lebanese American University and the Consul General of Lebanon in New York, in collaboration with the Arabian Sights Film Festival, cordially invite you to

Halal Love

Friday, October 28, 2016 | 6:30 - 9:30 pm

Film screening is followed by a discussion with Assad Fouladkar and a reception

Halal Love is a film about three individual but intertwined stories in which devout Beirut Muslims try to manage their love lives and desires without breaking any of their religion's rules. Halal Love was screened at Sundance, Rotterdam, and Dubai film festivals, among other prestigious venues.

Lebanese American University

211 East 46th Street, New York, NY 10017 (map)
nyac.lau.edu 212-203-4333

Register

Assad Fouladkar was born in Lebanon and studied filmmaking at Boston University. His first feature film, When Maryam Spoke Out (2001), was the Lebanese official entry to the Academy Awards. More recently, Assad has been living in Egypt directing what has become the most successful sitcom in the Arab region, Ragel w 6 Sittat (A Man and 6 Ladies). Fouladkar is an adjunct film instructor at LAU in Beirut.